

Book Report

I have read a book called Beast,

The author of the book is David Williams.

The characters in the book are a weak little prince called Alfred, a nice old Nanny, the king and the queen, the lord protector, a small homeless orphan called Mite, the old queen and her friends Enid, Judith, Agatha, Beatrix, Daphne and Virginia, the royal guards, the executioner, the Octobot, an eight armed robot that performs the same tasks as a butler, and last but not least the all seeing eye.

My favourite part is when Prince Alfred battles the Griffin!

A Griffin is a mixture of a lion and a bird.

Prince Alfred's mother got taken away for a crime she had not committed. He tries to save her. He ends up in prison himself but escapes.
